In reference to Karpov v Karpov, et al. :

I, Svetlana Karpov, would like to notify the court of several factors which plaintiff alleges in her recent motions.

Please refer to Exhibit A, Exhibit B and Exhibit C while reading the following facts.

1. Exhibit A: Court Order stating child support payments.
2. Plaintiff by court order from the Family Court of Dutchess County, New York State receives $675.00 monthly, PLUS an additional amount of 337.50 monthly. (Reason found on court order, please refer to it.)
3. As stated by the Child Support Processing Center of the State of New York, payments have been made to plaintiff in the following manner:
  - a. In January of 2013, plaintiff received total child support payment of $934.56.
  - b. In February of 2013, plaintiff received total child support payment of $934.56.
  - c. In March of 2013, plaintiff has also received total child support payment of $934.56.
  - d. Before this, the payments were about $300.00 per month to Karolina upon emancipation, and before that it was about $650.00 per month to her guardian.
4. Payments have been made to Karolina Karpov EVERY month, are always consistent and never infrequent. Before payments were made to Karolina directly, they were sent to her guardian of that time, Nina (Karpov) Armstrong. Whether or not Karolina ever saw a penny of that child support monies is questionable, as they were, sadly, only housing her in order to obtain benefit.

5. Thomas Delpizzo, Senior Assistant County Attorney who assisted plaintiff in this case, agreed with plaintiff to the sum of $675 per month.
6. According to Motion, Objection to Order of Support Dated February 6, 2013, (Exhibit B) Karolina Karpov writes to court saying that she needs $2,500 per month to live. Not only that, Karolina proceeds to demand Svetlana Karpov to appear with financial disclosure.... Etc.
7. Upon speaking with Karen Palumbo, my attorney for the child support case, I discovered that she was never notified in any form, that I am being sued for a greater sum in Family court. After Karen Palumbo contacted Thomas Delpizzo, it was found that he, as the attorney on record, was never notified of Karolina Karpov's motion to court. Please refer to Exhibit C: Email exchanges between me and my attorney in reference to Child Support Case.

Exhibit D Child Support payment history

In conclusion, this goes to show that plaintiff is still trying very hard to discover my financial status. She never had and does not have a private investigator, as she claims. My 1099s filed every year are accurate and done by a professional accountant. By the most recent 1099s, the family court settled for an amount as discussed in the court order. Karolina Karpov, an unfortunate victim of Vera and Peter Lomtevas, is desperately using and abusing the court systems to try and extract financial information.

WHEREFORE, I would like to politely request this court to dismiss Plaintiff's request for leave in forma pauperis.

TO THE FAMILY COURT:

KAROLINA KARPOV provides the following OBJECTIONS to an "Order of Support" dated FEBRUARY 6, 2013 a true and accurate copy of which is attached as EXHIBIT "A".

1. Transcripts have not yet been ordered.
2. Petitioner is the aggrieved party because while her order of support is $675 per month with arrears set at $3,100, the Support Magistrate allowed respondent to refuse to appear in person or by electronic testimony.
3. The Support Magistrate also allowed respondent to avoid producing evidence of her income or her substantial property holdings.

Exhibit B

5. I need $2,500 per month to live.

WHEREFORE I demand the respondent be made to appear with financial disclosure, arrears made retroactive to the date of the filing of the petition, Order of Support be amended, along with other and further relief allowed by law.

I will confirm with the Court....it may be just that she filed the objections and it may be decided on her papers whether the Court will go forward with it....I spoke to Tom DePizzo about it, the County attorney and he knew nothing and was rather disgusted that Karolina filed it in the first place and did not seek him out first.....According to Tom, Judge Posner will probably just throw it out, but I will check it out nonetheless.....
